President's Prose

Volume 4, Issue 2

Dear Members and Friends,

Within an hour or two I am leaving for the airport to visit my sister in Johannesburg and attend a meeting that I have enjoyed for the past almost thirty years. I am a Founder member of the African Zoo Association (PAAZA) and was honored a few years ago to be given Honorary Life Membership. It will be a lot of fun to see all these old friends and I am looking forward to it.

As you all know, the annual Plant Sale is once again a thing of the past !! And once again it was a tremendous success even though the vehicle arrived late and we had a horribly hectic time trying to sort the special orders before opening up to the public. Linda will write more about this but I just want to say a huge "thank you" to everyone who came out to help – especially those spouses who went the extra mile to guide the vehicle to us.

Several of our members were honored by Bloomingdale's Character Counts Coalition and I want to congratulate Bonni Rothbaum and Marilyn Johnson for their services to the community. I was one of those honored and I do really consider it a privilege and am happy that our Club is so highly regarded. You may recall that in previous years Joyce Boryla and Helen Price have been similarly honored.

Summer seems to have finally arrived and it is going to be hot today with big storms approaching ... I hope my flight leaves on time and I will be thinking of you all as I fly away to Amsterdam and then down the continent of Africa to Johannesburg. It is winter time there .... why am I leaving now when it is finally getting nice here???

Well dear friends, I'll see you all again soon. Have a happy summer!

Joyce Basel

Spring Programs

Joannie Rocchi from The Growing Place shared her expertise in putting together terrariums in March. She encouraged us all to give this a try and to look at vessels that we have that can be used. She also shared that we needed limit them to living plants. Seashells, seasonal objects etc. can be used very effectively in glass.

In April, Linda Kunesh informed us all of the many ways that we could volunteer to help out with our annual Plant Sale fundraiser in May along with general information about the sale. We also put together fun wire pot decorations and reviewed some proposed changes to our By-Laws.

In May, David Brooks from the Spring Valley Nature Center in Schaumburg shared his knowledge on "Foraging For Wild Edibles". Who knew that some of the common weeds we all know, are actually edible and nutritious. David handed out a recipe sheet that included Flower Fritters. Has anyone tried them???

A Walk in the Woods...

On Saturday, May 7th, eleven of our members, plus Joe Boccuzzi's mother, were given a guided tour through Meacham Grove. Jim Unger, a DuPage County Forest Preserve Volunteer, met us at the west entrance on Rosedale Road across from the Bloomingdale Township building. Jim provided us with maps and a list of 10 wild flowers we might identify. He did provide a history of the area as well.

We did see Mayapples, two types of trilliums, wild Leek, Jack-in-the Pulpit plus lots of wild mustard. The photos were taken with a cell phone.

Upcoming 2016 Programs

Preserving the Harvest

She will cover 5 ways to preserve your garden harvest from canning to freezing to drying and root-cellarling. Lots of great information that we can use in the months ahead.

July 19

Glenn Grosch

Hydrangeas

Glenn will share a colorful presentation on growing hydrangeas successfully in the Chicago area. 5 species will be covered for hardiness, light requirements and moisture needs. Pruning for flower display and managing blue/pink bloom color will be included.

August 16

Memorial Garden Dedication

We will have a simple dedication of our garden in Old Town Park at 6:30 PM. As that is a concert night in the park, we will encourage you to bring a lawn chair and enjoy the music afterward. Should the weather be inclement, we will gather at our meeting location at St Paul Church for refreshments after the dedication.

2016 Flower & Plant Sale a Big Success!

Once again, Bloomingdale Garden Club members, their families, and friends turned out in great numbers to support this year's Flower & Plant Sale. Despite some great challenges with the extremely late delivery, pulling and setting aside pre-sale orders, and poor weather conditions, our net profit was about $5,000! (We're still gathering expenses & receipts and will report final figures soon.)

Here are some of the highlights:

Thirty-seven (37) current and two (2) former Club members personally contributed their time over the course of many days! That translates to a participation rate of 71%!!! (We don't know of any garden club that could come close to that level of members' participation!) Plus, many were joined by family members & friends. How great is that?!

Hundreds of perennials were donated, potted, and sold for $1,100! We also were able to donate left over perennials to the Park District and two additional worthy causes -- WINGS and DuPage County Group Homes.

As in the past, the Park District Maintenance Building was ready for us by 2 p.m. on Thursday. At various times throughout the Sale, Park District staff assisted with moving tables, plants, and clean up.

Tables rented to us by Rental Max again were at a reduced cost. Table cloths were generously donated by Lydia Modugno, former Garden Club member.

George's 2-tiered racks beautifully displayed our hanging baskets which were organized again by Georgette West and former club member, Roberta DiBasilio.

Master Gardeners not only helped us pull pre-sale orders in the final hour before we opened, they also made the Raffle Container Gardens. They were on-site throughout Friday and Saturday to assist customers, answer gardening questions, and made a few container gardens upon request.

Esther Ahlrich provided the delicious pulled pork for lunch on Friday. Cathy Gall & Jennifer Moore provided sloppy Joes on Sat. MANY club members provide many other goodies & treats. Cathy Kreis kept all of this organized!

Helen Price's publicity efforts, supported by Cathy Gall's & Dan Vitacco's postings on the website and Facebook were awesome! We also had amazing publicity support from the Park District. And the new signs arranged for by Henia Sullivan were fantastic!

Our partnership with Joe Potts and the Bloomingdale Park District continues to strengthen and contributes so much to the success of our Sale. (continued on next page)

The Raffle Container Gardens & beautiful potting bench/bar (secured by Chuck Aldous) netted $188!

Yard Art, Wedgies, & soil netted $189!

Most of the left over annuals were donated to a number of area churches.

The Plant Sale Committee will de-brief later this month. If you have ideas or suggestions, please contact one of the Committee members. Already up for consideration for next year are:

finding a new vendor for our plants possibly setting up and receiving plants on Thursday so we can pull and set aside pre-sale orders then opening to the public on Friday a.m. without the stress of having to pull orders on the same day possibly having the Perennial Potting Party at the Maintenance Building two weeks prior to the Sale which will eliminate having to move them in cars & other vehicles Storing some of our signs at the P.D.

The 2016 Sale was truly a success! It was especially wonderful getting to know many club members on a more personal level. We are such a fun and funny bunch! Thanks to all for your dedication, help, and support.

Bloomington Garden Club Members & DuPage Master Gardeners Plant At DuPage Convalescent Center

Saturday, May 21st was a glorious day for planting the annuals at the DuPage Convalescent Center's Secret Garden. A big thanks to Joyce Boryla, Joe Boccuzzi, Akhila Meda, Linda Kunesh, Jennifer Moore, Helen Price, Henia Sullivan, and Cheryl Svec! They joined five Master Gardeners to plant the Rainbow Garden, other in-ground gardens, and containers at the Center. The end result was BEAUTIFUL!!!

The Center's residents, their families, and the staff are truly appreciative of our Club's ongoing flower donations and commitment of time to make the Secret Garden a beautiful outdoor oasis that is enjoyed by so many.

Bloomington Garden Club's "Plot to Plate" Garden

After several planning meetings to decide what to plant and how to lay out our garden, three members of the committee met at the garden on Saturday, May 7th to plant some early season vegetables. The Park District had done a wonderful job of tilling the soil to which we had added coffee grounds from Joyce Basel and leaf mulch provided by several members. Joyce Boryla, Kathy Mikutis, and Gail Sanders planted snap peas, beets, onions, lettuce, radishes, carrots, Swiss chard, and kale. Joyce had provided the snap pea seeds and the supports for them to grow up. Other seeds were donated. The weather was cool and windy, just what these veggies like. They all have gotten off to a great start and we will be ready to pick kale and chard soon.

Tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, basil, parsley, alyssum, and marigolds had been ordered through the Club's Plant Sale. Kathy Mikutis provided potatoes and two bags to grow them in. Master Gardener, Pat Kosmach, donated seedlings of lettuce, cucumber, zucchini, yellow summer squash, basil, dill, cilantro, and Brussel sprouts. Straw was purchased to put down in the paths between the sections. An organic fertilizer was worked into the planting areas.

A planting date of Saturday, May 28th was announced at the May meeting and club members were invited to join us. The forecasted rain held off and club members Joyce Boryla, Kathy Mikutis, Jennifer Moore, Gail Sanders, and Master Gardener Pat Kosmach planted 5 kinds of tomatoes, 4 kinds of peppers, cucumbers, eggplant, bush green beans, Brussel sprouts, zucchini, yellow summer squash, basil, parsley, dill, cilantro, alyssum, marigolds, nasturtium, more lettuce and more onions. As soon as we put the garden club sign up, the garden will be done (unless we end up putting in some late season crops).

The proposed layout was shown at the April and May Garden Club meetings and is included below (East is at top). We have decided to have garden club members sign up to tend (water and weed) the garden on a weekly basis. Sign up for this was started at the April and May meetings. We still could use some help with open dates. See the list on the next page and contact Gail 630 690-9468 or sandersgvjp@comcast.net if you can help.

Thank you to all of the support from the Garden Club. The proceeds from last year's garage sale allowed us to purchase the things we needed for this year's garden. We look forward to being able to provide fresh organic produce to nearby food pantries.

A Weed Killer Recipe to Try....

1 gallon white vinegar, 2 cups Epsom salts,
¼ cup Dawn liquid (the original blue liquid).

Helen Price submitted these photos for us all to enjoy. The iris came from one of our perennial sale items and the beautiful rose was from a garden she visited in Arizona.

Thanks Helen!

Read a Good Book Lately?

Helen Price shared information about a new book, "Pollinator-Friendly Gardening" by Rhonda Fleming Hayes. Her five must-haves for a pollinator garden are: milkweed, aster, goldenrod, salvia and liatris. A couple bonus must-haves are zinnias and sunflowers, because they're so cheap and easy to grow and attract so many species of pollinators. According to the Tribune, her book offers fascinating insights to plant-pollinator relationships, provides categorized plant lists and offers practical steps gardeners can take to make a difference.

My daughter gave me a wonderful book for my Birthday, Deep-Rooted Wisdom, by Augustus Jenkins Farmer. It speaks to the old tried and true methods of gardening and then addresses the more modern methods and how both can work. Loved it! (Cathy Kreis)

Feel free to pass along good gardening book recommendations.
